King crab meat tends to be sweeter and more delicate in flavor compared to Dungeness, which has a more robust and slightly briny taste. In terms of texture, the king crab is more tender and succulent, while the Dungeness is a little more salty. Both are favorites for eating simply seasoned and steamed, off a plate covered with paper, using mallets and crackers to extract the juice. The king crab is often served with a butter sauce, while the Dungeness is often served with a lemon butter sauce.
